

Photo: Camila Greenwell

Performing Migration: Personal Stories Past & Present

- 14:00 Welcome Pam Schweitzer (ERN) and Myrto-Helena Pertsinidi (Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V.)
-
- 14:10 Professor Xenis Sachinis Dean of the Faculty of Fine Arts, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece.
-
- 14:30 Pam Schweitzer, Director of the European Reminiscence Network, presents an exhibition of Memory Boxes containing the life stories of migrants looking back on their life with the help of professional artists
-
- 15:00 Dr Natsaha Oxley, Lecturer in Drama at the University of Greenwich describes student theatre work created from the memory boxes with support from Drama Students from the University of Greenwich.
-
- 15:15 Drama Students share their experience of working on migrant stories from the Reminiscence Theatre Archive
-
- 15:30 Protein Dance will give a presentation of their highly regarded dance piece, "Border Tales" with video excerpts and an explanation of the company's approach, involving dancers who themselves have migrated.
-
- 16:00 Tea Break
-
- 16:15 Me? I just put British! Forum Theatre piece by 'From the margins to centre stage' women's group directed by E. Kaptani.
-
- 17:30 Erica Rolle, Chief Executive of Galeforce Productions Universal Ltd working with migrant women in the local area
-
- 17:45 Carl Cordonnier of Daily Life Films from France will present a short film about the experience of migration entitled "New Young Europeans"
-
- 18:00 End